

La Casona de Éboli

La Casona de Éboli is a charming hotel situated in the village of Santorcaz, which is the last village situated in the Community of Madrid. You'll find it some 30Km from Guadalajara and 12Km from Alcalá de Henares, you could say that it is only a stones throw from the basin of the Henares to the Alcarria area.

In the Dungeons of the castle, which dates back to the XI century Cardinal Cisneros and the Princess of Éboli were once imprisoned. Presently the only parts that have been preserved are parts of the towers and the walls, close by however, you will find the impressive San Torcuato church dating back to the XII century, and perfectly restored.

The Hotel itself has five double rooms, all of them different and all equipped with bathroom on suite; some bathrooms have hydro massage bath and or hydro massage shower and other has also Jacuzzi. All rooms have hair dryer, fan ceiling, television, telephone and a minibar. There is also a large guests room with log fire and a patio where you can rest and soak up the tranquillity.

All food prepared is totally home made, prepared with the finest ingredients and relying on traditional methods of preparation. Also using fresh seasonal foods you'll be guaranteed a fine gastronomic experience.
